

A Study of The Red Book Liber Novus

Winter-Spring 2012

Offered by the C. G. Jung Institute of Colorado

Six classes are being offered focused on the study and reflection of C.G. Jung's Red Book. The book is a journal of Jung's journey during a period of his life which he later called his "confrontation with the unconscious." His experiences of opening to his imagination through dialogue, reflection and drawings fills the book. The classes will be conducted by Jungian analysts. Please note that there is no class on March 1.*
